

SCHOOL HOLIDAY PROGRAM

MUSIC PRODUCTION FOR BEGINNERS

Scan to Register

PROGRAM DETAILS

Day/Dates:	4th & 5th June 2022
Time:	9am - 1pm
Who Should Enrol:	School students aged 13 - 17 years old
Fees (RM):	200
Mode of Study:	Online

Call us at 019-4023820
for more info

TEACHER INFO

Sze Kin Sun

Mr. Sze Kin Sun is a Berklee College of Music graduate with a Bachelor of Music in Music Synthesis and a Master of Arts from Middlesex University. He is an Avid Certified Instructor for Pro Tools and Sibelius, an Apple Certified Trainer for Logic Pro and an HRDF certified trainer. Sze is also a member of the MQA Panel of Experts who developed the program standards for performing arts in Malaysia.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

This course teaches students how to use free, online tools to create beats and chord progressions, & manipulate audio signals to produce a multitrack music mixdown.

BENEFITS

- At the end of the program, students would be able to:
- Be familiar with free online tools to produce music
 - Create beats, chord progressions and do a basic mixdown

EQUIPMENT NEEDED

- Computer (macOS Sierra (10.12) / Windows 7 or newer) / smart device (iOS 12.4/Android 5.0 or newer)
- Headphones/Earphones/Speakers
- Zoom

DAY 1
Time	Activity
9am to 11am	Getting Started Activity: Create percussive beats
11:15am to 1pm	MIDI Instruments
DAY 2
Time	Activity
9am to 11am	Processing Regions and Tracks
11:15am to 1pm	Audio Tracks and Samples: Activity: Record an audio track, use a sampler instrument and download your mixdown